LISA GIBSON
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Lisa Gibson is the Founder and Executive Director of the Peace and Prosperity Alliance. She received her Juris Doctorate with honors from Cooley Law School and her BA in Political Science from Alma College. Prior to starting PPA she served as VP of Advocacy and Experiences for a nonprofit missions organization. She also has over seven years of experience working on public policy issues for state and national advocacy organizations.

Lisa has a unique voice on global terrorism having lost her brother on the 1988 terrorist bombing of Pan Am flight 103 over Lockerbie, Scotland. She has seen the power and restoration that comes from seeing true justice, forgiveness and reconciliation in cases such as these.

Lisa has a desire to impact society by addressing the root issues that result in human rights abuses such as injustice, oppression, and terrorism around the world. Her work was recognized in June 2010 when she received the prestigious honor of being one of Ten Outstanding Young Americans as chosen by the U.S. Junior Chamber Jaycees.

The Peace and Prosperity Alliance is a non-profit organization that desires to bridge the gap between the developed and developing world through cross-cultural partnerships between government, business, civic and religious leaders.
